Dear Mr Buckler,

Thank you for your enquiry of 29th August 2026 in which you requested access to information held by the Wales Office concerning the Great House Farm.

We have treated your enquiry as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

In your email you requested the following information:

- Records of any communication or outreach between Cadw, or its predecessor functions, and the Office of the Secretary of State for Wales / Welsh Office concerning Great House Farm during the period July–December 1988.
- Records of any recommendation, briefing, submission, notification or formal appeal concerning the protection or listing of Great House Farm submitted to the Secretary of State.
- Records of any communications with the occupiers and owners of the property before the refusal decision of 5 December 1988.
- Any surviving destruction, disposal, transfer or accession documentation relating to the Great House Farm 1988 assessment file, including certificates, dockets, lists, database entries, retention schedules, disposal authorities or other contemporaneous records held by the Welsh Office, its predecessors, Cadw, or any repository to which relevant records were transferred.
- Information regarding a decision made in relation to Great House Farm in 1988, including the evidence that was used to support that decision.

Our response
We have carried out a search of our digital records and have determined that the Wales Office does not hold the information requested. Any paper files previously held by the former Welsh Office relating to this matter would have been transferred to the National Assembly for Wales in 1999, and subsequently to the Welsh Government in 2007. You may therefore wish to request this information from the Welsh Government. Freedom of information requests can be made to the Welsh Government through this email address: Freedom.ofinformation@gov.wales.

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of your request or the manner in which it was handled you have the right to request an internal review. Such a request should be submitted within two calendar months of the date of this response and should be addressed to:

Wales Office
Gwydyr House
Whitehall
London
SW1A 2NP
United Kingdom

Email: walesofficefoi@ukgovwales.gov.uk

Please mark your request clearly; highlighting specific areas of concern, including any arguments which support your view and remembering to include the reference number above.

If you remain dissatisfied you may ask the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) to investigate any aspect of your case. Please note that the ICO are likely to expect an internal review to have been completed before they commence their investigation.

If you have any queries or concerns about this response please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours sincerely,

Freedom of Information Team
Wales Office
